Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

The month of March is moving fast. It has been very cold here recently. Time for spring but don't feel like it.

Mr. Walker Thornhill died at Virginia Baptist Hospital on Saturday. Funeral Tuesday morning at 11 a.m. Sympathy is extended the family.

Sympathy goes out to Mrs. Gail Taylor in the death of her grandfather, Mr. Prentice of Sparta, Ill. who died last week. The Taylor's are living in Lynchburg now. They have moved from Farmville.

Howard Shorter of Darlington Heights who is still in a Richmond Hospital hopes to come home soon. He is the grandfather of Howard Shorter Jr of Evergreen. Hope he has a speedy recovery.

A mock meeting of the Appomattox Association was held at Elon Church on Monday night. Edna and Van Carson leading and Clerk Louise Roach. Five churches were represented. Several visitors. Elon furnished the special music.

St. Luke news

Even though it was a cold and blustery day, a very large group of members and friends made their way to the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday, March 15 for the 11 a.m. preaching services, Rev. J. E. McLaughlin and Rev. Jones were present and the Senior choir gave the music for the day. Mrs. Josephine Nowlin was at the piano. Rev. McLaughlin took the text from Daniel 5:25. Belshazzar and the Handwriting on the Wall. Mene, Mene, tekel, Upharsin. Interpretation: Mene: God has numbered the kingdom and finished it. Teke: Thou art weighed in the balance and art found wanting. Peres - Thy kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians. Subject: Treat the church as a sacred place. This was well done and choosen by the listeners. The service for the day was uplifting.

Sunday at 6 p.m. there was a large group of friends and well wishers of Deacon R. W. Hunt to attend an appreciation service for his having attended for 78 years. The St.Luke Church School. He holds his church membership at The Hat Creek Church, but church school membership at St. Luke Church. The Rev. John West, pastor of Hat Creek, gave the message and his Junior Choir gave the music. Rev. West's text was from Psalms 71: "Lord forsake me not in old age. Subject "Not Forgotten at Old Age." This was very inspiring. The highlight of the occasion was that Mrs. Louise had Mr. Hunt's daughter who teaches in Washington, D.C. to come and be a surprise to her Dad. When he saw her standing there to march in with him, it was beautiful to see the expression of surprised joy on his face. He also received a nice amount of finance for the occasion consisting of gifts from the St. Luke Church School and Hat Creek Church School and other personal gifts from friends. This was a nice event.

Sunday after services Mrs. Louise Canada was invited along with Rev. and Mrs. West to the lovely home of Deacon and Mrs. Milton Nowlin as a dinner guest. A lovely dinner was served by Mrs. Milton and Mrs. William M. Nowlin. Among the group of young adults were Miss Louise and Miss Brenda Canada, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Nowling, who are still in college and finishing up their training coming June.

Rev. McLaughlin could not attend the dinner occasion because his wife has been ill lately.

We are pleased to relate that the ill ones of the community are up again.
